Pueblo de Cuba: Let's Talk about GE is a chapter within the multimedia performance project Havana in Hi&Low Fi. Following are stills from the video piece that was shot and produced between 2004 and 2006.

As in a commercial TV show setting, guests are being asked about the quality of GE as a brand , and if they'd like to see GE go back to Cuba. The very last still of the video shows surprinsigly that General Electric is not what they were talking about...
